COUNCILLOR RONALD FREW RESIGNS

Waimarino-Waiouru Ward Councillor Ronald Frew has announced his resignation from the Ruapehu District Council effective immediately.

Mr Frew said that his resignation was due to increasing work commitments.

"Due to my work commitments which have increased recently I am unable to give the time to my role as a Councillor that the position deserves," he said.

"Although my resignation will necessitate a by-election I was not happy being paid by the Ruapehu ratepayer when I am unable to give 100% to the job."

"I wish Mayor Morris and the other Councillors well."
