Schedule 1: Cemeteries41

1.0 Title

- 1.1 This Bylaw may be cited as the Public Health and Safety Bylaw 2013 (the Bylaw).

2.0 Commencement

- 2.1 This Bylaw shall come into force after the passing of the resolution confirming the adoption of the Bylaw.

3.0 Purpose

- 3.1 The Public Health and Safety Bylaw regulates a diverse range of activities. It seeks to protect the public from nuisances, minimise the potential for offensive behaviour and to protect and promote public health and safety within the District.
- 3.2 The Bylaw does not duplicate statutory provisions. It seeks to complement existing statutory provisions that may also affect Public Health and Safety such as under the Local Government Act 2002, the Resource Management Act 1991, Building Act 1991, the Health Act 1956, and the Litter Act 1979 by addressing specific needs assessed in the community overtime.
- 3.3 Bylaws are recognised by Council as part of a wider approach to the control of undesirable actions or matters that involve both regulatory and non-regulatory methods.
- 3.4 Council does not accept any liability for any damage arising from the activities that could be detrimental to public health and safety in any public or private place and permitted under this Bylaw.
- 3.5 This Bylaw is made pursuant to Sections 145, 146, 147, of the Local Government Act 2002 and with consideration to the decision-making and consultation sections of the Local Government Act 2002.

4.0 Interpretations

4.1 For the purposes of this Bylaw, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall apply:

5.0 Revocations

- 5.1 This bylaw revokes and replaces the Ruapehu District Council Public Health and Safety Bylaw 2006.

6.0 Fees and Charges

- 6.1 In relation to this Bylaw, Council may, at any time by resolution publicly notified, prescribe fees that may be charged in respect of any certificate, authority, approval, consent given, inspection made or service given by Council under the provisions of the Local Government Act 2002, or any other enactment where that enactment contains no provision for authorising Council to charge a fee.
- 6.2 Unless an Act, Regulation, or Bylaw provides that a certificate, authority, licence, consent or service given or inspection made shall be given free of charge then all fees and charges in respect thereof, which Council is empowered by an Act, Regulation or Bylaw to prescribe, charge or vary by the making of a Bylaw or otherwise, may be hereby and hereafter prescribed, charged, or varied from time to time by an ordinary resolution of Council, publicly notified in terms of the relevant Act, which shall specify when they shall come into force, and to which persons, applications, objects, and period they shall apply and (where appropriate) on what basis they may be assessed.
- 6.3 Except as otherwise provided in any Act, every fee or charge which is prescribed or charged under clause 6.2 hereof shall be such as to recover no more than the reasonable costs incurred by Council in respect of the matter for which it is prescribed or charged.

7.0 Offences

- 7.1 No person shall do anything or cause any condition to exist for which a licence or approval from Council is required under this Bylaw without first obtaining that licence or approval and the failure to do so shall constitute a breach of this Bylaw.
- 7.2 No application for a licence or authority from Council and no payment of or receipt for any fee paid in connection with such application, licence or authority, shall confer any right, authority or immunity on the person making such application or payment.
- 7.3 Everyone commits an offence against this Bylaw who:
- (a) Does, or causes to be done, or permits or suffers to be done, or is concerned in doing, anything whatsoever contrary to or otherwise than as provided by this Bylaw, or
 - (b) Omits, or neglects to do, or permits, or suffers to remain undone, anything which according to the true intent and meaning of this Bylaw, ought to be done at the time and in the manner therein provided, or
 - (c) Does not refrain from doing anything that under this Bylaw he or she is required to refrain from doing, or
 - (d) Permits or suffers any condition of things to exist contrary to any provision contained in this Bylaw, or
 - (e) Refuses or neglects to comply with any notice duly given under this Bylaw, or
 - (f) Obstructs or hinders any officer of Council in the performance of any duty in the exercise of any power, conferred by this Bylaw, or
 - (g) Fails to comply with any notice or direction given in this Bylaw.

8.0 Penalties

- 8.1 Every person convicted of an offence against this Bylaw shall be liable to the penalties as set out in Section 242(4) of the Local Government Act 2002 and further if the offence is one to which Section 243 of the Local Government Act 2002 applies (and is therefore an infringement offence) shall be liable to infringement fees as prescribed by Regulations made under Section 259(b) of the Local Government Act 2002, or where any person is alleged to have committed an offence against this Bylaw; be proceeded against pursuant to any other enactment so empowering Council.
- 8.2 The continued existence of any work, building, land, premises or thing in such a state or form as to be in contravention of any provision of this Bylaw, shall be deemed to be a continuing offence under this Bylaw.

9.0 Schedules

- 9.1 Every schedule to this Bylaw shall be deemed to form part of this Bylaw. Council may from time to time by resolution publicly notified, add, delete or amend any schedule of this Bylaw, or any of the provisions of any schedule of this Bylaw.

10.0 General Conditions

- 10.1 Council is authorised from time to time to make resolutions to impose such prohibitions, restrictions, controls or directions as deemed necessary.
- 10.2 In all cases where this Bylaw provides for the issue of any order, notice or licence, such an order, notice or licence shall be deemed to be issued in compliance with this Bylaw if the same be issued by any officer of Council authorised for that purpose.
- 10.3 All officers appointed by Council under or for the purpose of any repealed Bylaw and holding office at the time of the coming into operation of this Bylaw shall be deemed to be appointed under this Bylaw.
- 10.4 Any person who in the opinion of any authorised officer of Council commits a breach of any of the provisions of these Bylaws shall if so requested by the officer supply their full and correct name and address.

11.0 Scaffolding and Deposit of Building Materials

11.1 Introduction

- 11.1.1 This part of the Bylaw is made pursuant to Council's powers under the following Acts and Regulations hereunder and any other Act or authority in any way enabling it to make Bylaws:
- Local Government Act 2002

11.2 Authority Required for Scaffolding and Deposit of Materials

- 11.2.1 No person shall without first obtaining from Council a permit so to do:
- (a) Erect or cause to be erected any scaffolding, gantry, hoarding or barricade on or over any public place or part thereof, or
 - (b) Deposit any building material or building rubbish on or make or maintain a hole in order to deposit any building material or building rubbish or excavation in or disturb the surface of any public place or any part thereof, or
 - (c) Prepare building materials on any public place or part thereof.

11.3 Shutting of Fence or Hoarding

- 11.3.1 No person shall erect or demolish any building, or alter, add to, repair, plaster, paint, clean or, cause to be altered, added to, repaired, plastered, painted or cleaned, the walls roof or other external part of any building abutting on any street, public place or footway thereof, unless that person has erected a fence or hoarding so as to shut off and render safe the traffic passing or which may pass along the street, public place or footway, or otherwise shall have obtained a certificate from Council dispensing with such fence or hoarding.

11.4 Issue of Permit and Security for Possible Damage

- 11.4.1 Council may issue a permit subject to the provisions of this part of the Bylaw for the safety and convenience of the public and protection of the street. An applicant must deposit with Council such a sum as Council shall direct, to be held as security for the making good by the applicant of any damage that may be caused to the public property by such work or act. If the applicant does not make good such damage Council may repair or make good to the original standard, and charge the cost of such work to the applicant or deduct the cost needed aforesaid.
- 11.4.2 Council shall not grant approval until satisfied that the applicant has a Health and Safety Plan.

11.5 Works to be Carried Out for the Protection of the Public

- 11.5.1 Where in the opinion of Council it is necessary in the public interest, the person intending to erect any scaffolding shall, before commencing the erection of the scaffold, form a gantry, so that it is stable over the public footway to allow pedestrians to pass beneath it. Such gantry shall be substantially constructed to the approval of Council. The gantry shall be constructed so as to prevent tools, dust, materials, or water to fall upon the pedestrians, vehicular traffic and adjoining properties. The applicant erecting such a gantry shall keep the public way clear so as not to obstruct the flow of people or vehicles beneath it.

- 11.5.2 Where a gantry is not required over the footway, the lower stage of the scaffold shall be close-boarded. Such close boarding is to extend further than a line parallel with the outside edge of the curb. The close boarding shall have the effect of preventing tools, dust, materials, or water falling on pedestrians or vehicular traffic.
- 11.5.3 No material shall be positioned under a scaffold that obstructs members of the public.
- 11.5.4 Where needed or where required by Council, a boarded platform not less than 1m wide with sturdy post rails and wheel-kerbs on the outside of it shall be constructed outside the scaffolding.
- 11.5.5 In all cases where street channels are covered over, the person who was issued the permit shall make sure that such channels are not obstructed during the currency of the permit.

11.6 Hoardings and Scaffolding to be Lit

- 11.6.1 All hoardings and scaffolds shall be well and sufficiently lit to the satisfaction of Council during the hours of darkness, being:
- (a) The period of time between half an hour after sunset to half an hour before sunrise.
 - (b) Any other period of time when any hoarding or scaffolding within 2.5m of the ground is not clearly seen.

11.7 Fire Hydrants

- 11.7.1 All fire hydrants shall be left unenclosed in recesses formed of such size and in such a manner as to enable the hydrant to be easily accessible.
- 11.7.2 Access shall be provided to all underground services within the enclosed area.

11.8 Street Lamps

- 11.8.1 Street lamps shall not be enclosed without the permission of Council. When such enclosure is permitted, the applicant shall put a lamp or lamps temporarily outside the scaffold so that the public way may be properly lighted.

11.9 Permit not Transferable Without Authority

- 11.9.1 The permit of Council, as aforementioned for the erection of any scaffold, shall not be transferred to any other person without the written consent of Council.

11.10 Construction of Hoardings

- 11.10.1 Builders' hoardings shall be more than two metres in height; they shall be constructed in a substantial and workmanlike manner of approved material, the ends shall be splayed, and the outside sheeting whatever the material shall be left with a smooth even finish. Council, at its discretion, may require the hoarding to be painted as directed.

11.10.2 Openings in hoardings shall be provided with sliding panels, hung with approved hangers, and shall slide inside the line of the hoarding or such openings may be provided with a door, fixed so as to allow the door to swing only inside the hoardings.

11.10.3 No such hoarding shall be used for advertising purposes.

11.11 Permit Fees

11.1.1 There shall be a fee payable to Council for such permit. Such fee may from time to time be prescribed by resolution, publicly notified of Council, such permit may be renewed from time to time if in the opinion of Council unavoidable delays have occurred.

11.12 Offences

11.12 Any person who shall commence any such work aforesaid without first obtaining the required permit or who works outside the conditions of which the permit was granted or who after the expiry date of the permit fails to leave the place in the previous condition shall be guilty of an offence against this part of the Bylaw.

11.13 Responsibility for Accidents

11.13.1 The granting of a permit under this part of the Bylaw shall not relieve the permit holder from responsibility for accident or injury to persons or property public or private, or for the proper maintenance of all necessary guards or a full compliance with this part of the Bylaw.

12.0 Nuisances

12.1 Introduction

- 12.1.1 This part of the Bylaw is made pursuant to Council's powers under the following Acts and Regulations hereunder and any other Act or authority in any way enabling it to make Bylaws:
- Local Government Act 2002
 - Health Act 1956
 - Litter Act 1979
- 12.1.2 The purpose of this part of the Bylaw is to control the accumulation and disposal of litter, rubbish, offal, excrement, manure, and any other offensive material on private land.

12.2 Deposit of Refuse

- 12.2.1 No person shall deposit or permit others to deposit or accumulate any refuse or litter as defined in the Litter Act 1979 or rubbish of any description including sawdust, plastic material, waste paper, shavings, filth, tins, glass, rags, straw, garden refuse, tree cuttings, iron, or steel on any land not set apart for such purposes by Council.

12.3 Dead Animals on Private Premises

- 12.3.1 No person shall throw or leave, or permit or allow remaining any dead animal or vermin on private property, land or premises.

12.4 Offensive Drainage

- 12.4.1 No person shall cause or permit any waste or impure water or offensive liquid or matter to remain in any cellar or place within any building or premises. No Person shall cause or permit the contents of any water closet, toilet, privy, drain, cesspool or other receptacle to soak and therefore to be offensive or run over any land or through a drain so as to create a nuisance or become offensive.

12.5 Defective Sanitary Appliances

- 12.5.1 No person being the owner or occupier of any building or premises, shall permit or suffer any water closet, toilet, urinal, bath, lavatory basin, sink, cistern or any other sanitary fitting in connection therewith, to be in such a state or defective condition as to render such appliance incapable of proper and hygienic use.

12.6 Creating Nuisance

- 12.6.1 No person shall cause or permit any drain, water closet, toilet or animal enclosure including but not limited to, a stable, fowl house, fowl run, dog kennel, pigeon house or yard to be or become a nuisance either by neglect or default on the part of such person to provide proper cleaning.

12.7 Encouraging Vermin

12.7.1 No person shall:

- (a) Cause or permit or suffer any refuse, waste material, material or thing to remain or be kept in such a manner or for such a time as to afford shelter or likely harbourage for vermin to visit or frequent, or be in such a building, land or premises.
- (b) Fail to protect from access of vermin as far as practicable any article which is likely to be food for vermin.
- (c) Neglect any such building, land or premises where vermin exist or are harboured, or where there is evidence of the existence of vermin.
- (d) Fail to remove or obliterate nests burrows or habitual haunts of vermin in any building land or premises.

12.8 Flies Mosquitoes and Other Such Insects

12.8.1 The owner or occupier of any building land or premises whereon exist conditions giving rise or likely to give rise to the breeding of flies, mosquitoes or other insects dangerous to health shall execute and do such disinfecting spraying or applying of larvicides, cleaning, screening, removal or destruction of breeding grounds or places as may be necessary to prevent the breeding of flies, mosquitoes or other such insects.

12.9 Paving of Yards

12.9.1 Where it is deemed that a yard, or other open space is the source of unsanitary conditions an authorised officer can require the owner of the premises to rectify the said area by the construction of a sealed impervious area. This area must be paved with concrete, asphalt or other impervious material, sloping to allow the effective drainage of liquid from the area, into an appropriately designed and permitted treatment system or drain.

12.10 Drainage of Stagnant Water

12.10.1 The owner of any land or premises upon which any stagnant water, drainage, or other such impure water collects shall cause such land or premises to be effectively drained or filled in so as to prevent the collection of stagnant water or other impure water.

13.0 Food Safety

13.1 Introduction

- 13.1.1 This Part of the Bylaw is made pursuant to Council's powers under the following Acts and Regulations hereunder and any other Act or authority in any way enabling it to make Bylaws:
- Local Government Act 2002
 - Health Act 1956
- 13.1.2 The purpose of this Part of the Bylaw is to set requirements so that all premises, where food is prepared for sale, employ staff that are adequately trained in food hygiene. The Bylaw also allows territorial authorities to close premises that are unsanitary.
- 13.1.3 The aim of this Part of the Bylaw is to ensure that safe food is available in all food premises throughout the District.
- 13.1.4 This Part of the Bylaw is made pursuant to section 145 of the Local Government Act 2002 and section 64 of the Health Act 1956.

13.2 Compulsory Training for Food Handlers

- 13.2.1 All food premises are required to have food handling staff that have passed or are in the process of acquiring an NZQA approved basic food hygiene or food safety certificate, with the exception of those premises that have a Food Safety Programme approved by the Food Safety Authority.
- 13.2.2 It shall be the duty of the occupier of every food premise to ensure that food handling staff have passed an NZQA or are in the process of acquiring an NZQA approved basic food hygiene or food safety certificate.
- 13.2.3 Every food premise shall have at least one person employed in a supervisory and staff training capacity who is trained to the standard required, provided that Council may grant an exemption or partial exemption where full compliance may be unreasonable having regard to the site and the nature of the premises.
- 13.2.4 In the case of food premises which consist of separate departments or sections, each of which functions more or less in isolation from the others; at least one person shall be appointed to act in a supervisory position within each separate department or section.
- 13.2.5 The occupier of every food premises shall ensure that adequate records are kept relating to staff training and that copies of all certificates gained by staff are kept on the premises for perusal by any authorised officer upon request.

13.3 Closure of Premises

- 13.3.1 Where any food premises or part of any food premises or any appliance, fitting or fixture or other equipment on any food premises by reason of their situation, construction, disrepair, or state are in such a condition that any food in the food premises may become unfit for human consumption, an authorised officer may serve a notice in writing on the occupier of the premises requiring him/her:

- (a) To cease to use the premises as food premises, or to clean or reconstruct or to repair the premises, or part of the premises; or
- (b) To cease to use, or to clean, reconstruct, or repair any appliance, fittings, fixture or other equipment on those premises in accordance with the requirements and within the time specified in the notice.

13.3.2 Where an occupier has been directed to cease to use any food premises the occupier shall not recommence use of those food premises until permission has been given in writing by Council.

14.0 Cemeteries

14.1 Introduction

- 14.1.1 This Part of the Bylaw is made pursuant to Council's powers under the following Acts and Regulations hereunder and any other Act or authority in any way enabling it to make Bylaws:
- Local Government Act 2002
 - Burials and Cremations Act 1964
- 14.1.2 The purpose of this Part of the Bylaw is to enable Council to control and set standards for the operation of cemeteries within the boundaries covered by Council's responsibility or ownership.
- 14.1.3 Nothing in this part of the Bylaw shall derogate from any provision of, or the necessity for, compliance with the:
- (a) Burial and Cremation Act 1964
 - (b) Burial and Cremation (Removal of Monuments and Tablets) Regulations 1967
 - (c) Cremation Regulations 1973
 - (d) Health (Burial) Regulations 1946

14.2 Burials and Sale of Plots

- 14.2.1 Burial plots sold by Council shall be sold upon the terms and conditions as decided by Council and the exclusive right of burial may be granted for such limited period as Council decides.
- 14.2.2 No burial shall be made in any cemetery without a burial warrant for that purpose obtained by the person having the management or control of the burial from Council and presented to the Sexton as authority for burial.

- 14.15.9 Shrouds must be fastened to a solid base for lowering purposes.

15.0 Fires in the Open Air

15.1 Introduction

- 15.1.1 This part of the Bylaw is made pursuant to Council's powers under the following Acts and Regulations hereunder and any other Act or authority in any way enabling it to make Bylaws:
- Local Government Act 2002
 - Forest and Rural Fires Act 1977
 - Forest and Rural Fires Regulation 2005
- 15.1.2 The Purpose of this Part of the Bylaw is to allow Council to exercise control over burning in the open air in urban areas of the District and prevent smoke from fires in the open causing a nuisance. Council, not the New Zealand Fire Service, is responsible for monitoring compliance with this bylaw.
- 15.1.3 Council has a further avenue of control over smoke nuisance in the nuisance provisions of the Health Act 1956 and persons responsible for causing a smoke nuisance may be prosecuted under the provisions of either the Health Act 1956 or the Bylaw.
- 15.1.4 Regional Councils have responsibility for discharges into air. Consents and approvals may be required from Horizons Regional Council for discharges into air from fires in the open air.
- 15.1.5 Nothing in this Part of this Bylaw shall be regarded as derogating from the provisions of the Forest and Rural Fires Act 1977 and Forest and Rural Fires Regulation 2005.

15.2 Application

- 15.2.1 This bylaw applies to those parts of the district which are a fire district declared or constituted under section 26 of the Fire Service Act 1975.

15.3 Fires in the Open

- 15.3.1 Unless a prohibition under clause 15.5 is in force, a person may light a fire in the open air if the following conditions are met:
- (a) The fire must not, by reason of its location, risk of spread, or prevailing circumstances of wind or otherwise, constitute or be likely to constitute a danger to any person or property;
 - (b) The fire must not be within five metres of any part of a building, boundary, standing growth or other combustible material;
 - (c) The fire must not be lit before sunrise or after sunset without the approval of Council;
 - (d) There must be available an acceptable means of fire suppression;
 - (e) The fire must be adequately supervised at all times until it is completely extinguished;
 - (f) The fire must not create a smoke or ash nuisance or hazard to any person or property;
 - (g) All conditions required by the District and Regional Councils plans are met.
- 15.3.2 For the absence of doubt, clause 15.3.1(c) does not require a fire that was lit after sunrise to be extinguished prior to nightfall on the same day.

15.4 Conditions for Lighting Barbecues and Hangi at any Time

- 15.4.1 At any time (even if a prohibition is in force under clause 15.5) a person may use a solid fuel barbecue or ethnic cooking fire if the following conditions are met:
- (a) The solid fuel barbecue or ethnic cooking fire must not, by reason of its location, inadequate containment or prevailing circumstances of wind or otherwise, be likely to be a danger to any person or property.
 - (b) There is immediately available a water supply.
 - (c) Adequate supervision is maintained at all times while combustion is occurring.
 - (d) A smoke nuisance or hazard to any person or property is not created.
- 15.4.2 A person who is the owner or occupier of premises must not permit or allow the use of any solid fuel barbecue or the making of any ethnic cooking fire on those premises unless all of the conditions specified in clause 15.4.1 are met.
- 15.4.3 This clause does not authorise the use of any solid fuel barbecue or the making and/or use of any ethnic cooking fire if doing so would constitute a breach of any Act or regulation, including any rule in a district or regional plan under the Resource Management Act 1991.

15.5 Prohibited Fire Season

- 15.5.1 Council, with the advice of the New Zealand Fire Service, may at any time where, in its opinion, reason exists or may exist to prevent the outbreak or spread of fire, prohibit the lighting of fires in the open air for any specified period of time within all or any parts of the district referred to in clause 15.2.1.
- 15.5.2 Council may, at any time and from time to time in the manner provided in clause 15.6.1, vary or cancel any prohibition made under clause 15.5.1.
- 15.5.3 Subject to clause 15.6 no person shall light any fire in the open air and no person, being the owner or occupier of any premises, shall cause, permit or suffer any such fire to be lit there or to continue to burn there in contravention of a prohibition made under this clause.

15.6 Public Notice of Prohibited Fire Season

- 15.6.1 Public notice of the prescription of a prohibited fire season made under clause 15.5.1 or the cancellation or variation of such a prescription, shall be made by:
- (a) Broadcast or other similar means within the District; or
 - (b) A notice inserted in a daily or community newspaper circulating within the District; or
 - (c) Signage in various parts of the urban District; or
 - (d) Any other effective means.

15.7 Exemption from Prohibition

- 15.7.1 Council, with the advice of the New Zealand Fire Service, may issue to any person an exemption from a prohibition imposed under clause 15.5 where it is satisfied that:
- (a) the fire is urgently required to prevent, reduce or overcome any hazard to life or property; and
 - (b) the use of the fire is the safest, most efficient and effective option.

15.7.2 Every exemption will be in writing and shall specify the conditions Council considers appropriate for fire control.

15.7.3 Council can at any time withdraw the exemption for any reason by contacting the person the exemption is issued to.

15.8 Extinguishing Fires

15.8.1 Where a fire has been lit or allowed to burn in contravention of this bylaw Council, or an officer of the New Zealand Fire Service or New Zealand Defence Force may extinguish any such fire or direct the occupier of the premises on which the fire is located, or the person who lit the fire, to extinguish such fire.

15.8.2 Where a fire has been extinguished pursuant to 15.8.1 Council may recover any costs incurred in extinguishing the fire other than those costs that the Fire Service is prohibited from charging for as defined in Section 47c and 170(a) of the Fire Service Act 1975.

15.8.3 The costs referred to in clause 15.8.2 shall be recovered from the occupier of the premises on which the fire is located, or the person who lit the fire.

15.9 Live Ashes

- 15.9.1 No person shall place any live cinders, embers or ashes in or upon any premises other than:
- (a) In a container made and constructed of concrete or other similarly fire resistant material to prevent the transmission of heat to any combustible material.
 - (b) In a pit or upon any fire-resistant substance in a manner which will prevent the spreading of fire or heat by the action of wind or otherwise.
 - (c) As part of an ethnic cooking process including hangi and umu.

Those records must be kept for at least three years and made available to an Environment Health Officer, Health Protection Officer or a Medical Officer of Health as defined in the Health Act 1956 who is carrying out any investigation pursuant to Part III of the Health Act 1956 or the Health (Infectious and Notifiable Diseases) Regulations 1966.
- 17.5.11 A copy of this part of the Bylaw and the Ministry of Health's current Guidelines for the Safe Piercing of skin must be kept on the premises or the licence holder and be freely available for reading by any person employed on the premises and by any person attending the premises for the purpose of undergoing any body piercing,
- 17.5.12 Where Council is satisfied that compliance with any requirement of this part of the Bylaw would be impractical or unreasonable having regard to the premises and body piercing service in question, Council may grant a written exemption from the requirement. The exemption will be granted on such terms and conditions, as are considered desirable in the interest of public health.

17.6 Exemptions from Licensing Requirement

- 17.6.1 The requirement to obtain a licence for body piercing premises does not apply to:
- (a) Carrying out acupuncture at a person's home where the person wishing to undergo acupuncture is unable to attend the licensed premises because of injury, infirmity or medical emergency, if the acupuncture is carried out in compliance with the general requirements in this part of the Bylaw; or
 - (b) Carrying out any body piercing in any temporary structure or premises for a maximum period of five days in any 30 day period, if the person carrying out the body piercing complies with all conditions specified by Council.
- 17.6.3 The written approval of Council and the payment of any fee for any inspection required and payment for Council's time to consider the matter may be required before an exemption from the licensing requirement is granted.
