

POLICY ANALYST

Ruapehu offers a lifestyle based in one of the most beautiful and diverse locations in New Zealand, with the Tongariro World Heritage Park and the Whanganui National Park, as well as superior skiing, trekking, kayaking, hunting and fishing. The Ruapehu District is a great place to live, work and play, is easily accessible from major cities and has affordable real estate.

Not only an exciting and rewarding career opportunity but at the same time you could be living in a wonderful playground of pristine rivers, majestic mountains, and lush native bush.

- ▶ The Policy Analyst is a driver for the development, implementation and monitoring of Council's policies and other strategic documents, including the Long Term Council Community Plans, and Exceptions Annual Plans.
- ▶ Applicants should have appropriate qualifications and have been part of the Long Term Planning process for local government. A high level of understanding of the Local Government Act 2002 is important, as is a strong commitment to sustainable development.

Working for local government offers you the opportunity to work closely with your local community and to make a difference. As part of a small Council, staff are involved in a broad range of Council activities, which offers development in areas of particular strength or interest.

We would like to hear from applicants who can provide a fresh approach to the development of our unique district, who are motivated and enthusiastic for a position that will use and develop your creative and lateral thinking skills.
