renewal of a Manager's Certificate

BEFORE THE RUAPEHU DISTRICT LICENSING COMMITTEE

Commissioner: Ross Murphy

DECISION

This is an application by Daniel John Mills for the renewal of a Manager's Certificate to assist with the management of Raetihi Farm Supplies.

The criteria to be considered under section 227 is as follows;

- A) Suitability.
- B) Relevant convictions.
- C) The manner in which the manager has managed the sale and supply of alcohol pursuant to the licence with the aim of contributing to the reduction of alcohol-related harm.
- D) Matters in the Inspector's and Police reports.

Other requirements for renewing a Manager's Certificate are;

- E) The applicant will hold the LCQ. If that was obtained 2013 or before, have they completed the LCQ bridging test
- F) The applicant is still working on a licensed premises that requires a manager.
- G) The application is supported by an appropriate reference from the employer.

Reports have been obtained by the Inspector and the Police and there is no opposition.

Summary and decision.

The committee must consider all the criteria and requirements before the Manager's Certificate can be renewed and I am satisfied that all the criteria and requirements are met. The application is granted and the Manager's Certificate is renewed for three years.
